

Imagine a redefined Berserker body implemented by the mad Tiphareth being Kasa and given with the power to conquer not only Tiphareth. Unfortunately for her, she won't have enough time to experiment her newfound abilities as Tiphareth quickly crumbles and the world is left in her body unseed and untested metamorphosizes into the fabled "Tree of Life" with the help of Kasa's teenage relation. Her knowledge the Tree of Life was possibly obtained during her subjection to the Berserker program where she was reading a book entitled the Holomists of the Golden Dawn, a secret religious sect which believed in Jewish Kabbalah and the Tree of Life. In essence, Kasa became the Tree of Life representing the world of Tiphareth, Ketheres, and the Seraphim.
